Christiane Hackerodt

studied economics at the University of St. Gallen in Switzerland and received her doctorate with a comparative analysis on derivative financial instruments between the US, Japan and Switzerland.

She has been working in the management of the Hackerodt Group since 1990.

In 2013 Christiane Hackerodt created the Dr. Christiane Hackerodt Foundation for Arts and Culture which she represents as director.

The foundation supports young as well as established visual artists who experiment with new ways of artistic reality.
